We are a friendly school, with a firm commitment to providing professional development opportunities for our staff and a passionate belief that every student in our school matters. We are very excited that we were full for September 2017 with our Year 7 cohort for the second year running, the school has not been in this position for decades and is testimony to its rapid turnaround. Our recent open evening attracted a large number of parents who gave exceptionally positive feedback. Our Progress 8 score is +0.13 which ranked Brakenhale as the 3rd placed Secondary school in Bracknell Forest.
