Year 11 News

Friday 17th November 2017

Weekly Attendance: 94.4%

Dear Students

Another tough week done. Some of you have spent 6 hours with teachers this week as you have completed your Options Week. As a teacher, the days are really useful in covering content and exam technique and we all appreciate your efforts in keeping going all the way through to P5 each day.

Of course, all that effort is building up to PPEs which begin in one week's time! You should be getting properly stuck into revision by now, especially covering those topics which you may not have studied since Y10. We use these PPEs to see exactly where you are in your course so we know how best to help you. The message is, quite simply, that if you don't revise properly some of you will not do as well as you should. For some of you not revising will mean failure in this set of exams. We want to build your confidence so give yourself the best possible chance of success by preparing well!

Fail to Prepare, Prepare to Fail!

PPEs w/c 27th November and 4th December

Please make sure you have spoken to your teachers about the topics to be assessed. You should all be revising away, don't leave it too late! The timetable has been sent out- please contact your tutor if you need a copy.

Parent's Evening- March 2018

As always, if you have any questions or concerns please get in touch.
